Welcome home, y'all! We are back with episode 3 of the Native Land Pod, co-hosted by Andrew Gillum, Angela Rye, and Tiffany Cross. Today's conversation focuses on the state of the GOP race, including several candidates suspending their campaigns and shifting their focus and support following the New Hampshire Primary. The trio also discusses AI in election interference, when a black woman calls you "baby," and Ava DuVernay's highly acclaimed movie Origin being shut out of Hollywood's award ceremonies. Black artists may simply have to bypass the traditional gatekeepers to receive their true flowers. Lastly, they'll be answering some of your much appreciated listener questions and more. We want to hear from you! Send us a video @nativelandpod and we may feature you on the podcast.
