Magnus and Kaitlyn are in two different places, two different times. But she remembers their last conversation - "Where do you know I love you?" "On the air around me, mo reul-iuil. On every breeze is your sigh, under every sky. 'Tis always the same stars, ye ken. As long as ye are under them then I can hear ye, I love ye, ye say. I can always hear it." "Good." And maybe that will help them in the dangers ahead.... Because there's a son that needs to be protected. A family that has been displaced. A bad guy with a grudge. And a Highlander without a home.
