Fate doesn't always happen overnight.

Hudson Bradley is the cockiest, most stubborn, hard-headed man I've ever known. And for 15 years, he's been my brother's best friend.

But lately, what I'm feeling for him isn't friendship at all.

Why is my heart racing every time his blue eyes lock on mine?

Why does every word he rumbles in my ear make my body come alive?

And worst of all, why did I bet him that I could find a woman he and his son would both love?

If I hadn't given up on love altogether, Hudson would have been perfect for me. After all, he was there the day my world fell apart. He's spent the last six years piecing me back together.

There are a million reasons why we could never work, but after a single kiss, I can't remember any of them.

Now that the time is right, I have to make him mine - before I lose him forever.
