Hello there! Welcome to J.C.'s newest series: "Nervous, Naked, and Naïve"! These stories of exploitation and humiliation take place at Pudendia Women's Academy, an all-girl college where sweetness, innocence, and gorgeousness are the rule, not the exception. Here you will meet Headmaster Edwin Dankworth "dirty-minded disciplinarian extraordinaire. Edwin is chronically smitten with just about every cute and curvy student at Pudendia, and he uses his position of authority to find situations galore in order to get one unlucky lass after another out of her clothes for some rather unethical—well, you name it! When you're dealing with a lovable old Brit who's as horny and perverted as Edwin, the possibilities are unlimited!

In this sleazy tale, Edwin is delighted to learn from three of his professors that a certain Miss Lisa Bell is suspected of cheating on her midterm exams. Why do they think Lisa cheated? Because, although she hardly ever studies, her scores were exceedingly high on all of them. Suspiciously high, in fact. And these tests are incredibly difficult. Lisa, a soon-to-graduate senior, is studying aeronautical engineering. Neither Edwin nor her professors can fathom how anyone—especially a girl—could perform so well in classes this advanced. And why is Edwin delighted? Because, first of all, Lisa Bell is one seriously sweet and sexy young lady—a cheerleader, in fact. And, second, because at this school, girls who cheat on tests are usually punished with Edwin's favorite: an over-the-knee, bare-bottom spanking! And this spanking is to be administered in his office by Lisa's three professors and, of course, himself!

Well, Lisa is called in right after cheerleading practice, and she arrives still wearing her sexy little uniform. Here, she is informed that, because she clearly cheated on the test, she will need to be punished. And she knows precisely how!

The problem is she didn't cheat! Lisa is a gifted student, and she could have passed those tests with her eyes closed!

Nonetheless, Edwin isn't about to lose out on an opportunity to get her over his knee and her short skirt raised!
And so it begins.
Lisa is humiliated out of her mind having her teachers with their hands all over her tight, little tushy. But when Edwin decides that her cheating warrants an even higher degree of humiliation, Lisa is then given a series of commands that would redden the cheeks of a porn star!
And on it goes.
Frankly, it's unconscionable what debasement these four men are willing to put her through. That is, until one of her professors turns out to be a true guardian angel—in more ways than one.
And Lisa discovers that her angel can be quite the devil, too!
From violated to vindicated!
If you love ENF submissive female erotica featuring college girls who are fresh-faced, well-shaped, modest, and embarrassed to the hilt, this story is for you! Our dirty-minded headmaster may be unethical, but he sure knows how to have some good, clean, fun—okay, scratch clean!
