Excalibur is real. And it's calling to her.

Samantha Moon's mother, private investigator, vampire is about to go on her wildest adventure yet. After giving up the Devil Killer sword to protect her family, Sam thought she could return to a quieter life. But when ancient enemies begin stirring and a legendary weapon begins whispering through the ether, she knows peace was only ever an illusion. Her search for a new magical blade leads her across oceans and under lakes, to the mythical Lady of the Lake... and the one sword that might rival the Devil Killer itself.

Excalibur.

But Samantha isn't the only one seeking the sword. A breach in the mystical defenses of a submerged castle has unleashed monsters, mayhem, and a deadly race to claim a power that could tip the balance between good and evil forever.

Joined by psychic witch Allison, werewolf Kingsley, and her quick-witted kids, Sam must brave ancient guardians, dimensional doorways, and a mischievous winter spirit named Jack Frost who arrives with a strange request... and secrets of his own.

Magic is rising. The cold is spreading. And Samantha Moon is about to discover that some legends never sleep.
