I'd led a selfish existence. I liked who I was. Hell, I loved myself. Women threw themselves at me, and I took what they offered without remorse. I promised them nothing. I sank my teeth into life, holding on to it like my very existence depended on it. Time passed. Women came and went. The second I let my guard down and released the hold I had on life, what was my award for such carelessness? A love so spectacular and heart-wrenching that it threw me for a loop. When I was in too deep to escape, my greatest fears became reality. This is my story. My downfall. My salvation.
